

Connect the Dots

Campaign Training for Teams

When & Where:

November 3rd – 5th, 2017
Columbus, OH

Who:

Are you working to stop a development, pass legislation, get your city to use 100% renewable energy, protect a special place, or some other critical campaign effort? We are looking to help:

- Teams that are newly forming, or that have existed for some time;
- Teams of 3-5 people focused on a single issue or campaign priority;
- All organizations and affiliations welcome!

What:

A resource for new and existing leaders to deepen their commitment and connection, increase competence and confidence in campaign planning and community organizing, and enhance their contribution to engaging more leaders and supporters in transformational opportunities.

Connect the Dots is a Sierra Club training program designed to benefit new and existing campaign teams to be stronger on all aspects of campaign planning and implementation including:

- Campaign Planning & Strategy
- Building & Sustaining Teams
- Engaging New Volunteers & Leaders
- Creating a Vision & Narrative
- Connecting to Community Values
- Building a Partnership Network
- Power Mapping & Target Engagement
- Equity, Inclusion & Justice

Thanks to the support of National Sierra Club, meals for all participants, as well as lodging for those not local to Columbus, will be provided.
