

USE AT YOUR OWN RISK

Pine Mountain

4,539'

Location: 7 airline miles N of Azusa
Maps: Angeles National Forest
Topo: Azusa 7.5, Glendora 7.5

Primary Route: 7.0 miles, 3,000' gain one way

:

Exit I-210 in Azusa on Azusa Ave/Hwy 39 and drive Hwy. 39 North for 12 miles. Park near locked gate on the left side just after passing the OHV area. This is the Rincon-Shortcut Road, 2N24.

Hiking Instructions:

Hike up the road for 6 mi to the divide. Ascend the peak on right (West) 1 mile up a steep firebreak. Or, continue on the road another 1½ miles to a road fork on left and double up ½ miles to the summit. There is a communication tower on the peak. Return the same way.

Alternate Route: 0.5 miles, 350' gain one way

Driving Instruction:

From I-210 take Hwy 39 exit in Azusa and drive Hwy. 39 north for 12 mi. Stop at the OHV area and get the permit for the Rincon-Shortcut Road 2N24 (the day before call Glendora Ranger Station (626) 335-1251 or OHV (626) 910-1151 if road is open, how to get the free permit and lock combination number. The OHV is not open every day!). 2N24 is on the left side shortly after the OHV station. Drive 7.6 miles to a large saddle with a very wide parking area. Park here.

Hiking Instructions:

Hike past the locked gate on the road to the SW (2N24A) for ½ mi to the summit.

Special Notes:

Adventure Pass required. No water on trail

Nearby Peaks:

Clamshell Peak, Newcomb Peak, Mt. Bliss, Silver Mountain, Monrovia Peak (HPS) can all be hiked from 2N24.

Original: Lori Raubiere and Bob Wheatley 1986, rev. 2004